

BIG JOE

Jonathan Howard/Blueflower Skye

Big Joe, he don't know it all
And he's had his fair share of life gone wrong
But now it's smooth sailing, throughout the day
No matter what happens midst the ruckus and fray

And he don't know
And he don't care
Cause he's just one step away from outta here

Big Joe, he don't know it all
And Big Joe, he don't care

Big Joe, he don't have it all
And he don't need it no how
And he don't want, for anything
That'll just bring him down

And he don't need
And he don't want
The trappings that they sell

Big Joe, he don't have it all
And Big Joe, he don't care

Big Joe won't take a hammer to
What ain't scratched, broke or dented
In his point of view

And when hell freezes over
At the end of the day
Any effort expended
Is a waste anyway

And he won't change
And he don't care
To trouble with the mess people leave everywhere

Big Joe, he won't try to change
And Big Joe, he don't care
Big Joe, he won't try to change
And Big Joe, he don't care

Big Joe, he don't care
Big Joe, he don't care
Big Joe, he don't care
