

PRETTY WEED

Blueflower Skye

I know I'm not the prettiest girl that you've ever seen
I ain't all that in your little world of big town dreams
So when you walk on past without a glance
It's no surprise to me
But it ain't no loss, if it were up to me
I wouldn't change a thing

I may be broken-hearted, but don't think that just because
You forgot the names of all the beauty queens
You think you loved
I'll hold you to your promise when you say
You'll never leave
For it ain't no loss, if it were up to me
I wouldn't change a thing

I put your flowers in a mason jar
And left them on the porch
And swept away my thoughts of you
Just dust on the floor
The door's unlocked, if by chance
You happened to reappear
But for what it's worth, to me it's all the same
If you were never here

Hey, it's all good, really, I don't mind
You say you've got to go
Maybe another time

I'm just a pretty weed, wild and free
Goin' with the flow
I've been told, there's more than beauty
In a thorny rose
You're gonna bleed, sooner or later
And more than you know
But it's all good, anyway
'Cause I'm not here anymore

I put your flowers in a mason jar
And swept away my thoughts of you
Just dust on the floor
The door's unlocked, if by chance
You happened to reappear
But for what it's worth, to me it's all the same
If you were never here

I may be broken-hearted, but don't think that just because You forgot the names of all those beauty queens
you think you loved
I'll hold you to your promise when you say
You'll never leave
For it ain't no loss, if it were up to me

'Cause you ain't no loss, if it were up to me
I wouldn't change a thing
I wouldn't change a thing
I wouldn't change a thing
